THE NEW OFFICIALS.

Who are to Govern the City's Affairs for a While,

Col. Chase Elected Mayor by a Small Majority.

Judge Beneke and Treasurer Buck Re-Elected.

Kaufmann, Hascall, Redfield, Murphy, Woodworth and Anderson for the Council.

And Specht, Livesey, Copeland and Hall for the School Board.

Two Members of the Board in Doubt.

THE BEE very nearly called the urn Tuesday in its estimate of the results of the city election. The count in some of the wards has been provokingly slow, and a complete return could not be had until a late hour yesterday from all.

The result shows Col. Chase to be elected by about 77 majority, which The Stone Cutters of Omaha Show is far below what his friends expected. His friends worked hard to secure this victory.

Judge Beneke goes in for another time by a splendid majority, which shows the popular endorsement of his course as police magistrate of the city. Mr. Truman Buck is also re-elected treasurer by a handsome majority.

The members of the council who are that each ward secured one alderman. Daring his absence, which has extended over a period of over six months, this gentleman has had a varied and interesting experience. He was one of a government surveying party of twelve who have been doing government topographical work in the west for some time past. The outfit left some place in Wyoming last fall and sirce that time have been making a thorough survey of the lands in Wyoming not included in the government grants to the Union Pa-cific railroad. Daring the time they were out they went through Echo canyon in Utah and made a complete map of that whole region, which hitherto has not been done except by the railroad itself. Mr. Beal speaks in the highest terms of the magnificent scenery along the canyon and says the Metroplitan. that a person cannot comprehend its magnificent proportions unless he sees it himself.
